

Inland Empire Parrothead Club By-Laws

ARTICLE 1: ORGANIZATION

- A. This organization shall be called Inland Empire Parrothead Club. All references to the Board of Directors will herein be referred to as the BOARD.
- B. Inland Empire Parrothead Club is a social organization with two primary goals:
 - a. To gather and socialize with people who share similar interests while enjoying Jimmy Buffett's music in a festive atmosphere.
 - b. To assist in community and environmental concerns.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

- A. Membership in Inland Empire Parrothead Club shall be open to anyone meeting the membership requirements specified in Article II, Section C.
- B. The Inland Empire Parrothead Club shall not discriminate based on gender, race, creed, color, religious belief, sexual preference, or disability.
- C. Membership requirements shall be as follows:
 - a. A member shall pay dues according to a schedule set and approved by a majority vote of the BOARD prior to December 31 of each year.
 - b. The person must have an interest in Jimmy Buffett's music.
 - c. The person must have an interest in community service and environmental concerns.
 - d. The person must have a commitment toward the success of achieving the goals of the organization.
 - e. Member in Good Standing- is a member who has attended one club meeting in the current calendar year, also has contributed to one charity/community service event in the current calendar year and is current on their dues.

D. Payment of Dues

- a. Payment of dues will be made annually no later than January 31. For renewing members, a late fee will be assessed for payments received February 1 or later using the following calculations. For new members the dues will be prorated according to the month they joined.

	SINGLE MEMBERSHIP	FAMILY MEMBERSHIP
February 1-February 28: 25% penalty	$43.75	$68.75
March 1-March 31: 50% penalty	$52.50	$82.50

- b. By a majority vote, the BOARD can waive, reduce, or extend the deadline for payment of dues for any member due to financial hardship. Requests for such provisions must be submitted in writing to any member of the BOARD within 30 days of his/her anniversary date.
- c. Persons who have not been an active, paid member of the club for 2 or more consecutive years may register as a new member.

E. Refund of Dues

- a. Refunds of dues are only made with a majority vote of the BOARD.
- b. Any persons wishing to terminate his/her membership will not be refunded any portion of his dues.
- c. If the BOARD determine by majority vote between anniversary dates that a person does not meet the requirements of membership as stated in Article II, the BOARD can refund a portion of that person's dues pro-rated by the number of days remaining until next renewal date, thus terminating membership in the organization and all rights and privileges therewith...
- d. Any person who has not paid dues by February 1 will be considered suspended and payment of dues will reinstate membership under a new renewal date. Individuals may not participate in club activities and/or events until suspension is lifted.

- F. Membership may be revoked by a majority vote of the BOARD at any time that a member is found to have committed any of the following acts: malfeasance, misrepresentation, fraud, misuse of club assets (including but not limited to the membership roster or club funds), infractions of the Inland Empire

Parrothead Club's By-laws, or any other act that the BOARD deems to be detrimental to the reputation or well-being of the Club. The proceeding may also be used for denial of membership to any potential member.

- G. No person whose membership has been or revoked by the BOARD will have any rights to Inland Empire Parrothead Club logos, names, member lists, activities, or concert ticket privileges.

ARTICLE III: OFFICERS AND ADMINISTRATION

- A. The BOARD is the governing body of the organization. It shall take such action, as it deems advisable for the good of the organization. It shall have the power to commit the funds of the organization and shall have the duties described within the by-laws. The board shall manage the property and affairs of the organization. .
- B. All appointed members of the BOARD must be current members in good standing of the organization.
- C. The organization will be managed and operated by the BOARD, which is composed of the following individuals: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Marketing/Media.
- D. Until such time membership numbers allow for diversity, members of the board may be related but NOT have sole discretion of club policy or funds. Policy will be determined by majority BOARD vote and club finances will be overseen by at least 2 non-related BOARD members.
- E. The BOARD will meet at least quarterly and the President or Vice President can convene additional meetings at his/her discretion.
- F. The quorum shall consist, for any meeting, of 3 of the 5 members of the BOARD.
- G. All members of the BOARD will be entitled to vote on all matters of administration unless otherwise specified in the by-laws. A majority vote is required to adopt any motion introduced at any BOARD meeting.

ARTICLE IV: PERIOD OF SERVICE

Once the membership has reached sufficient numbers to support regular elections, each officer's term will consist of a two year term beginning on the first day of June and ending the last day of May.

- A. Election of the BOARD
 - 1. No later than April 15th of each election year, an "Election Officer" will be selected by the current President to serve as the individual who takes nominations and counts the votes for the board members. This individual will not be a current member of the BOARD nor will he or she be a current club leader or representative, but must be a member in good standing in Inland Empire Parrothead Club.
 - 2. The following requirements are needed to run for an officer position:
 - i. Must be a IEPHC member in good standing.
 - ii. Attend (a minimal of) 50% of all club functions for the 6 month period prior to running for an officer position.
 - iii. Must verbally state that they will adhere to the IEPHC bylaws in concern with the position they are running for and understand that an officer position is a continual commitment to the club.
 - 3. The Election Officer will publish notice in either the current newsletter or via email. The Election Officer will accept nominations for each office from members in good standing.
 - 4. Members may nominate themselves or another person. If another person is nominated, the Election Officer must verify that person's intent to run for office. Each position must have at least one candidate nominated.
 - 5. Another board member must nominate each board member who wishes to continue on the BOARD in his or her current capacity, or in another position. He or she cannot nominate himself or herself.
 - 6. Any BOARD member not wishing to serve for another term should inform the Election Officer that they do not wish to continue.
 - 7. The Election Officer must receive all nominations no later than May 1st of each election year. Failure of a current board member to timely submit his or her own nomination is considered resigned from the BOARD.

8. The Election Officer will present the slate of candidates to the board no later than May 15th of each election year.
9. A ballot will be created and either mailed out or distributed via email. If mailed, members pay for the postage of the ballot. In the event that all positions are uncontested, the current BOARD may vote to accept the new slate of candidates in lieu of a full election.
10. All voting by the membership for the next term's officers must be completed by June 1st of each election year.
11. The Election Officer's term expires at the close of each election.
12. In the case of a tie vote, the outgoing President shall break the tie.
13. Pursuant to the Parrot Heads in Paradise by-laws, "Upon conclusion of the election, a representative must report the changes in club officers to the Director of Membership, Parrot Heads in Paradise within 30 days of the conclusion of the election."
14. If any member of the BOARD cannot fulfill his or her term of office, he or she shall be replaced by the BOARD at the earliest convenience of the BOARD. The vacancy may be filled by the President with a majority vote of the BOARD until such time that the election process of the board can be executed. In the position of President, the Vice President will succeed into the President position and finish out the remaining term.
